

52 (8) opt. 5th

pol or a peke)The big police dog was a - way from his beat I don't know the rea - son, but most peo ple think he slipped

57 (8) D Colla voce

in - to the Well - ing - ton Arms for a drink and no one at all was a - bout on the street when a

Colla voce
Peke and Pollicle appear

rall.

61 E

peke and a poll ic - le happ - ened to meet They did not ad - vance or ex - act - ly re - treat, but they glared at each oth - er and

66 F A Tempo

scraped their hind feet and start - ed to Bark! Bark! Bark! Bark!

RUMPLE CARBUCKETY RUMPLE CARBUCKETY

70 G Meno mosso

Bark! Bark! Bark Bark Un - til you could hear them all ov - er the park. Now the peke, al - though peo - ple may

RUMPLE CARBUCKETY MUNKUS RUMPLE MUNKUSTRAP

75

say what they please, is no Brit - ish dog but a heath - en Chin - ese and so all the pekes, when they heard the up - roar, some

opt. 5th

80

came to the win - dow, some came to the door; there were sure - ly a doz - en more like - ly a score and to - geth - er they start - ed to grum - ble and wheeze in their huff - er - y snuff - er - y heath - en Chin - ese. But a terr - i - ble din is what poll - i - cles like. For your poll - i - cle dog is a dour York - shire tyke. There are

84 H

88 MEN

94 I

dogs out of ev - ery nat - ion The Ir - ish the Welsh and the Dane; The Russ - ian the Dutch, the Dal -